Moody Insurance Promotes Sveta Dynnikova to Employee Benefits Specialist

DENVER – Moody Insurance Agency, which offers risk management, insurance and bonding services, has promoted Sveta Dynnikova to employee benefits specialist.

In her new role, Dynnikova helps businesses design customized employee benefits programs, incorporating health, life, dental, vision, short- and long-term disability, and long-term care insurance and 401(k) plans. Dynnikova, who has worked in the employee benefits field for six years, acts as a liaison between insurance companies and clients to ensure high-quality programs and customer service.

Dynnikova joined Moody Insurance Agency as an employee benefits account manager in 1999. Before she joined Moody, she was an account manager with a national insurance company.

Dynnikova was born in Moscow and is bilingual in English and Russian. She is a member of the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU) and the Colorado State Association of Health Underwriters (CSAHU).

The state's third-largest private insurance agency, Moody Insurance represents more than 30 major insurance companies for thousands of clients annually, from its Denver and Grand Junction, Colo., offices. For more information please visit www.moodyins.com.
